With approximately 200 Japanese invested companies in Indiana, studying Japanese seems like a reasonable idea for developing employable skill sets for the local job market.

Kanji Camp is a year round Japanese studies program for professionals (and children) who wish to learn Japanese language for current or future employment environments. Our traditional classroom offers motivated learners opportunities to study the language and culture in a disciplined learning system.

Our curriculum offers students essential language skills via vocabulary and grammar lessons as well as culturally appropriate social training for real world applications.
